
Allison Strickland Ricketts & Richard Lehv Featured in WTR's “Top Takeaways from 2019”

When World Trademark Review asked for the “top takeaways from 2019” and predictions for 2020, Allison Strickland Ricketts cited the USPTO’s new requirement that all USPTO filings must be submitted by a U.S.-licensed attorney and the subsequent slowdown in the flow of applications from China. More

When World Trademark Review asked for the “top takeaways from 2019” and predictions for 2020, Allison Strickland Ricketts cited the USPTO’s new requirement that all USPTO filings must be submitted by a U.S.-licensed attorney and the subsequent slowdown in the flow of applications from China. Richard Lehv spoke of the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in Iancu v. Brunetti and its future implications.

Primary Contacts

Richard Z. Lehv

Allison Strickland Ricketts