Case No. 20-CV-8325

On behalf of client Banana Republic, the firm was successful in dismissing a case brought by typographer Moshik Nadav, who alleged that our client used an ampersand he designed without permission in connection with certain promotions, alleging in three separate amended complaints claims sounding in unjust enrichment, unfair competition and misappropriation. Following several rounds of motions to dismiss for failure to state a claim, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York dismissed the complaint with prejudice.
