Overview

“Crafting a legal strategy requires understanding each’s client’s unique situation and their desired outcome. I navigate these challenges by drawing from the firm’s field-leading intellectual property expertise in order to apply established principles to new situations.”

Max Capizzi advises clients on protecting and enforcing their intellectual property rights, with his practice focusing on copyright, trademark, and related commercial matters. Max works with clients across a range of industries, including media and entertainment, food and beverage, fashion, and consumer products.

Max has litigation experience in federal trial and appellate courts, state courts, and arbitrations. Prior to joining Fross Zelnick, Max was an associate in the litigation department of a large international law firm.
