We are pleased to announce that World Trademark Review has recognized seven Fross Zelnick lawyers in their latest edition of WTR Global Leaders. The 2023 guide includes partners Lawrence Eli Apolzon, Lydia T. Gobena, Nadine H. Jacobson, Craig S. Mende, Allison Strickland Ricketts, Barbara A. Solomon, and James D. Weinberger as among the world’s foremost trademark experts in private practice. In its fifth year, WTR Global Leaders draws upon their market-leading research for the WTR 1000 and WTR 300 awards, identifying the “best of the best” in trademark law.

Of Fross Zelnick, WTR says: “When it comes to the sophistication and complexity of its work, New York trademark boutique Fross Zelnick is in a league of its own. Fross is the gold standard in trademark practice...employing perhaps the deepest dedicated trademark bench in the country, the ensemble’s accolades are well-deserved.” Notably, Fross Zelnick attorneys represent almost one-third of the Global Leaders awarded in the US – New York region.

The firm would like to congratulate Larry, Lydia, Nadine, Craig, Allison, Barbara, and James. Thank you to World Trademark Review for this recognition.
